The Minutes of the afternoon session were read and approved.

The following resolutions were passed:

1. The thanks of this Conference are eminently due, and are hereby warmly tendered, the good citizens of Mount Airy for the unbounded hospitality accorded the members of this body during the very pleasant session now closing; and especially to Bro. A. H. Merritt for his gracious insistence on our coming; to Rev. J. E. Abernethy, pastor, and Bro. E. H. Kochtitzky for the untiring attentions shown and special arrangements in transportation, thus conducing to the comfort and convenience of the Conference; that we shall ever cherish in memories sweet and precious our delightful sojourn in this beautiful and growing city nestled among the granite hills, and will ever be ready to renew the charming associations when occasion may offer. Also, that we duly appreciate the courtesies of the various evangelical churches in placing their pulpits at the disposal of the Conference.

That we also extend our thanks to the authorities, granting for the use of the various Committees and Boards, the Presbyterian church, the rooms of the Graded School, the Mount Airy Bank, and the Commercial Club.

(Signed) H. F. CHREITZBERG.

W. L. SHERRILL.
P. H. WILLIAMSON.

2. Resolved, That J. A. Odell, Treasurer, be directed to pay to Mrs. B. F. Carpenter her pro rata out of the funds for Conference Claimants.

APPENDIX.

REPORT No. 1 OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION.

Your Board has had under careful consideration the financial condition and needs of all our schools, and recommend that an assessment of ($8,000.00) eight thousand dollars for educational purposes, and that the collection on this assessment be distributed in the following ratio:

Trinity College, one thousand dollars;
Greensboro Female College, two thousand dollars;
Davenport College, sixteen hundred dollars;
Weaverville College, twelve hundred and fifty dollars;
Rutherford College, twelve hundred and fifty dollars;
Brevard Institute, five hundred dollars;
Trinity High School, four hundred dollars.

Respectfully submitted,

E. L. BAIN, Chairman.

W. G. BRADSHAW, Secretary.

REPORT No. 2 OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION.

We have had before us reports from all the schools within the bounds of our Conference and from Trinity College, Vanderbilt University, and the General Board of Education.

We have also been in conference with the personal representatives of these interests, and we are gratified to note the prosperous condition of our educational work in this Conference and the entire Church.

The General Board of Education has laid an assessment of ($50,000) fifty thousand dollars upon the Church at large for Educational Extension. The apportionment to the Western North Carolina Conference is ($2,150.00) two thousand, one hundred and fifty dollars. It is contemplated in the expenditure of these funds to foster the work of distributing educational literature among our people, and to support our Correspondence School, and to aid the educational work of the Colored Methodist Episcopal Church, and also to maintain and strengthen our educational operations on the Pacific Coast.

We commend this assessment to the favorable consideration of our people.

All of our schools within our home territory seem to be confronted with an unusual emergency; that is to say, that they have reached the limit of their capacity for the accommodation of students, and are now planning with a large and more enthusiastic faith for their own future and for increased facilities and better equipment. While we sympathize with and appreciate their high aim and purposes of development and growth, we respectfully suggest to the various boards of trustees of these schools the advisability of consultation with the Board of Education through its Executive Committee upon any matter of financial obligation, that it may seem necessary for them to assume in order for the improvement or enlargement of their plants.

In view of the active canvass that is now on for the raising of an endowment of ($100,000) one hundred thousand dollars for Greensboro Female College, we recommend the second Sunday in March be observed by all our pastors and congregations as "Greensboro Female College Day," to the end that the great importance and supreme need of the successful issue of this work may be brought to the attention and laid upon the hearts of the entire membership of our church. Realizing that not less important as a means of insuring the stability and permanence of our secondary schools is the question of endowment to them. We also recommend that so soon as the endowment for Greensboro Female College has been raised, we shall then take up and prosecute with vigor to its accomplishment the endowment of each of these other schools with not less than $25,000.00.

In view of the fact that the number of students seeking higher education and in attendance at Trinity College appears disproportionate to the Methodist population and means of our Conference, we urge the consideration of our people to the superior claim that our own College has upon them, and we earnestly bespeak the co-operation of our pastors and people in a greater effort to prevent the diversion of our young men to the patronage of other institutions.

We recommend that Rev. J. A. Baldwin be appointed Principal of Piedmont Industrial School.

We recommend that Rev. C. C. Weaver be appointed President of Davenport College, and that Rev. H. H. Jordan be appointed Financial Secretary of the same.

The Board is gratified to report that three charges have become self-supporting—namely, Bessemer City, Creston Circuit, and Epworth, Concord.

The Board makes the following recommendations:

1. That our pastors take subscriptions in every church for "Go Forward" and preach often on the subject of Missions.
2. That the Presiding Elder of each district arrange with the Executive Committee of this Board to hold a Missionary District Institute as early in the year as practicable.
3. That this Conference express its gratification at the increasing interest by cotton mill owners in missions established in connection with their work, as shown by their liberal contributions.
4. That our pastors and Presiding Elders visit the prisons and convict camps, preaching as often as possible, and distribute literature, and also co-operate with Dr. Julius Magath in his work among the Hebrews.
5. That mission study circles be organized in every church.
6. That the Board hereafter make no appropriation to any new charges that will not pay a single man two hundred and fifty and a married man three hundred and fifty dollars.
7. We recommend the appointment of Rev. W. H. Willis as Conference Missionary Secretary, and Rev. D. H. Comann as Missionary Evangelist.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

Your Board desires to emphasize most strongly the importance of saving the young people to Methodism and to Christ. Only by early training the children in the things of God can the world be lifted out of sin, and next to the home the Sunday school is the most efficient agency for the accomplishment of this great end. No other organization has done so much for the upbuilding of the Church and has in it more possibilities for good. It is adaptable to all classes of people and can be worked successfully in all our stations, circuits, and mission fields. We insist that our preachers and people make special effort this year to move forward this interest; that they use all proper means to improve the instruction in all schools now in operation; to see that none are closed for the winter, and to establish new ones in all places where there is an opening.

In the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, we have 14,898 Sunday schools, with 109,653 officers and teachers, and 1,040,748 pupils.

In our own Conference we have 748 Sunday schools, 5,214 officers and teachers, and 59,065 pupils—increase, 927.

We recommend the following:

1. That Children's Day be observed in all our congregations, and a collection be taken for the Children's Day Fund.
2. That teachers' training classes be organized wherever practicable.
3. That a home department be organized in every congregation.
4. That in all milling towns a good woman be employed to assist the pastor in looking after the children of mill operatives.
6. That we urge our Presiding Elders to give especial prominence to the Sunday school work in their districts and quarterly conferences, and also urge all schools to use our literature.

REPORT OF EPWORTH LEAGUE BOARD.

Your Board has great faith in the Epworth League as a mighty power for good among our young people, and hence is pleased to note, from the report of our General Secretary, that there has been a healthy growth of the organization, in the Church at large, during the past year. However, it is a matter of regret to us, that in our own Conference the work is falling off rather than growing. We report now only 68 Senior Chapters and 26 Junior Chapters, while last year we had 73 Seniors and 32 Juniors. We urge our pastors to organize new chapters in the congregations where they are not organized, and to look well to the awakening of interest in the work where they now exist. As a means of greatest help in this work, we recommend a most liberal circulation, and use of, our periodical literature, especially The Epworth Era, the Junior Topics Quarterly, and the Helps for the Devotional Department.

We note that in those districts where the District Epworth League Conferences were held the organization is doing most, and therefore we again recommend the holding of such conferences in the various districts, and ask for the appointment of a District Epworth League Secretary for each district, whose duty it shall be to aid in planning for this work, and to take the general oversight of the League work in his district. We name the following secretaries: Asheville District, J. B. Craven; Charlotte District, C. M. Pickens; Franklin District, C. S. Kirkpatrick;

Greensboro District, C. H. Ireland; Morganton District, J. P. Rodgers; Mount Airy District, R. L. Ownbey; Salisbury District, E. K. McLarty; Shelby District, G. F. Kirby; Statesville District, C. C. Weaver; Waynesville District, W. T. Buttrick; Winston District, T. C. Jordan.

The Board offers the following resolution:

WHEREAS, The importance of the Epworth League work demands that its interests be brought more prominently before this Conference body; be it, therefore,

Resolved, That Wednesday evening of our next annual Conference be set apart as the time for an Epworth League anniversary, and that the Epworth League Board have provided, for the occasion, a suitable programme.

E. K. McLARTY, Chairman.

H. C. SPRINKLE, Secretary.

BIBLE CAUSE.

We are rejoiced to say that the louder call for the Word has been met by a stronger response by our Conference this year than in any previous year in our history. Our collections this year aggregate $1,096.86, against $852.00 last year.

We regret to report that 48 charges, against 37 last year, have been silent to this clarion call—in these times of mighty projections for missions.

The larger portions of the Bibles printed by the American Bible Society are now being distributed in the foreign fields.

Your Board is not going to be satisfied until every pastor presents the claims of the Word to every congregation and gives them the privilege of responding to the call. The proposition before us is, opportunity—the call—responsibility.

That we may be better adjusted to this work, from the view point of time, and the other accumulated demands at the end of the year, we recommend that the month of April be observed as Bible month in this Conference. We therefore urge that every pastor present the claims of the American Bible Society to every congregation during the month of April, if possible.

We further recommend that Rev. D. L. Reid be appointed by the Bishop as Conference Agent of the American Bible Society.

Respectfully submitted,

G. G. HARLEY, Chairman.

J. H. BRENDALL, Secretary.

COMMITTEE ON BOOKS AND PERIODICALS.

REPORT No. 1.

The Committee on Books and Periodicals recommends that a Committee on Publication for the North Carolina Christian Advocate be elected at this Conference for a term of five years.

This committee shall be empowered to nominate an editor for the Advocate; and in the event of vacancy in such editorship occurring between the meetings of this Conference shall elect an editor to serve until the ensuing meeting of the Conference. The Publication Committee shall fill similar vacancies in its own membership in like manner.

The committee nominates J. R. Scroggs, F. Siler, W. G. Bradshaw, J. L. Nelson and D. B. Coltrane to constitute the Committee on Publication for the ensuing five years, and that J. E. Gay, of the Conference Trustees, be elected proxy for five years to represent the Conference in the business management of the Advocate Publishing Company.

G. T. ROWE, Chairman.

WALTER THOMPSON, Secretary.

REPORT No. 2.

Your committee reports to the Conference as follows:

The publications of the house at Nashville are of great value, and special efforts should be made to increase their circulation among our people. The issues of the Methodist Quarterly Review take high rank among publications of like kind anywhere in the country. The provision made at the last General Conference, looking toward the improvement of the Christian Advocate, has already borne fruit in the greatly improved general character and make-up of the paper.

The Epworth Era is growing in usefulness and circulation. It is finding its place and is filling it with great acceptability. The Sunday school literature shows no falling away under the new editorship.

The North Carolina Christian Advocate, our own paper, is closing, under the present management, a half decade of very great prosperity. The circulation has increased until it now has nearly 7,000 subscribers. The paper has during this time been under the editorship of Rev. H. M. Blair, and to him is due cordial thanks for his faithful and wisely directed efforts.

The report of the editor for the past year is before us. He reports $1,800 pledged out of $2,000 he was authorized to raise at the last Conference. For the amount raised up to $2,000, stock will be issued to the Conference Trustees as collections are made, to be held for the benefit of the fund for worn-out preachers. The ease with which this $1,800 was raised leads the committee to think that the amount asked for was too modest.

Your committee is satisfied from the report that the returns of the business could be greatly increased by a small increase in equipment. Therefore, the committee recommends that the editor be authorized to solicit subscriptions to the amount of an additional thousand dollars, that the Conference Trustees be instructed to invest an additional $1,000 in Advocate stock; and that the Advocate Company be requested to issue additional stock for this $2,000, to be held by the Conference Trustees in trust for the worn-out preachers' fund. The cash thus secured is to be used in increasing the mechanical equipment of the paper.

The circulation ought to be further increased. Among 80,000 Methodists there ought certainly to be 10,000 subscribers to the Advocate. Your committee suggests that an attempt be made to secure 3,500 new subscribers during this year. We would suggest that these be apportioned among the districts as follows: Asheville, 300; Charlotte, 400; Franklin, 200; Greensboro, 400; Morganton, 350; Mt. Airy, 350; Salisbury, 400; Shelby, 400; Statesville, 400; Waynesville, 200; Winston, 400. These subscribers to be further apportioned to the various charges by the Presiding Elders and editor, to be raised by May 1, 1907.

When these new subscribers are secured, then the old subscribers may pay up arrearages to date and all advance for another year at a uniform rate of $1.

The Committee on Publication provided for in report No. 1 has met and nominates Rev. H. M. Blair for editor for the ensuing year. Your committee heartily concurs in this recommendation.

Your committee again calls attention to the fact that the Stone and Barringer Company, of Charlotte, carries a complete line of books from our Publishing House, and is prepared to give ministers a satisfactory discount on our own and similar publications. We heartily commend this company.

The Southern Methodist Handbook, published by Dr. T. N. Ivey at Raleigh, fills a real want and is cordially commended to our people.

In view of the fact that the proposition to greatly increase the rate of postage on weekly newspapers will seriously cripple religious publications of every kind, the editor of the Advocate is hereby instructed to convey to the proper authorities our most solemn protest against such increase.

G. T. ROWE, Chairman.

WALTER THOMPSON, Secretary.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON CHURCH PROPERTY.

Your committee have heard with pleasure the gratifying reports from the various charges concerning improvements in church property. In these days of great material prosperity, while our laymen build great factories and elegant homes, they do not forget our Lord's cause. Through their liberality, large investments are constantly being made in school buildings, chapels and churches of modern architecture, and in parsonages, homes for the ministry of our Church, so that our preachers may have also the comforts of home life. We thank God devoutly for this prosperity and for their liberality.

We offer the following resolutions:

1. That our preachers and laymen see to it that all our property, school buildings, churches, and parsonages, be kept insured.
2. That the spirit of liberality for these causes be constantly encouraged and fostered.
3. That every preacher on vacating a parsonage shall arrange that it and the premises be thoroughly prepared for occupancy by his successor. Also that a record of parsonage furniture be furnished by each preacher to his successor.

(Signed) F. L. TOWNSEND, Chairman.

A. S. RAPER, Secretary.

DISTRICT CONFERENCE RECORDS.

We find some slight criticisms, but much to commend in all the records that were before us.

The record of the Salisbury District is very neatly and accurately kept.

The records of Charlotte and Statesville Districts do not contain official roll, only the roll of preachers and delegates who answered to the roll-call. Otherwise they are neatly and well kept.

The record of Waynesville District does not show in the opening session to what annual Conference it belongs—otherwise it is well kept.

The Greensboro District minutes are not signed by the President and Secretary. Otherwise neatly kept.

The Shelby and Winston District Conference records are in all essential features well kept.

The records of Mt. Airy, Morganton, Franklin and Asheville Districts were not before your committee.

We recommend that the secretary of each district conference take pains to give a full account of all proceedings, and that due regard should be had for neatness and legibility. And further, that those charged with this duty see that the records be on hand at the annual Conference for examination by the committee.

E. J. POE, Chairman.

L. H. PHILLIPS, Secretary.

WHEREAS, This Conference has no permanent orphanage, and believing that it would be to the advantage of North Carolina Methodism that it should have but one orphanage, we, the Western North Carolina Conference therefore make the following proposition to the North Carolina Conference:

1st. That we offer to join the North Carolina Conference in the support of the Methodist Orphanage, situated in Raleigh, N. C., on equal terms, viz., an assessment on each pastoral charge, equal to 10 per cent of the pastor's salary, with the privilege of corresponding patronage.

2d. That as we contribute to the endowment, enlargement and equipment of the institution, that this Conference have a proportionate representation on the Board of Trustees.

3d. That the acceptance of this proposition by the North Carolina Conference will bind this Conference to this action.

We recommend to our people the observance of Thanksgiving Day in all of our churches, and the taking of a collection for the orphans, the same to be sent to the Methodist Orphanage at Raleigh, N. C., unless otherwise directed.

S. B. TURRENTINE,
G. H. DETWILER,
A. T. BELL,
C. H. IRELAND,
J. A. ODELL,

Orphanage Commissioners to N. C. Conference.

The Conference Trustees submit the following report:

The Conference now owns $41\frac{1}{2}$ shares of stock in the Advocate Publishing Company, from which it is now receiving a dividend of six per cent.

In December, 1905, the executors of the late Washington Duke paid to the Conference Treasurer $5,000.

During the month of April, by authority of the Conference, the Wed-dington home place was sold for $10,000. This money is all loaned on real estate security.

REPORT OF TREASURER, NOVEMBER 13, 1906.

Receipts from all sources	$16,718.70
Amount in loans	$14,850.00
Amount disbursed	1,075.30
Amount in hand	793.40

$16,718.70

We recommend that $800.00 be paid to the Joint Board of Finance.

L. W. CRAWFORD, Treasurer.

TEMPERANCE.

Your committee submits the following:

We are glad to report a growing temperance sentiment and that many of our State, county and municipal officers stand firmly for temperance, and we commend the bold position taken by Governor Glenn in favor of State prohibition.

We rejoice in the fact that the Watts law and Ward bill have limited the legalized liquor traffic to the larger towns, and that many of these towns have voted it out of their midst. We should hold the territory already gained, and heroically continue our labor for temperance until every saloon and dispensary is driven from the State, and see that all violators of our temperance laws are duly punished; and we would urge the next General Assembly to strengthen and fortify the laws already enacted.

We recommend, where practicable, the organization of interdenominational ministers' associations in counties, for the purpose of bringing preachers into closer relation, and that thus united they may wisely labor for further temperance legislation where needed, or for such other legislation as would tend toward the moral improvement of their communities. This organization to be perfected by the election of a president, vice-president, and secretary-treasurer.

Believing that the use of cigarettes is injurious in every way to our boys and young men, we do earnestly request our General Assembly to so amend the law prohibiting the sale of cigarettes to minors as to also prohibit the sale or gift of cigarette paper and smoking tobacco to minors.

That we also memorialize our next General Assembly for the re-enactment of the law for scientific temperance instruction.

(Signed) W. H. PERRY, Chairman.

J. W. INGLE, Secretary.

SABBATH OBSERVANCE.

Your committee reports as follows:

1. Not having been furnished with any statistics on the subject, we find it impossible to define, with any degree of accuracy, the attitude of our people on this very important question. All we can hope to do is to prepare a paper for your endorsement which will contribute to the creation of wholesome sentiment.

It is the imperative duty of all Christians to observe the Sabbath, and to exert their influence to promote its general observance.

We believe that the injunction to observe the Sabbath, as it is found in the Word of God, is not a mere provisional precept, but a moral law, and therefore of universal application. Embodied in the Decalogue, it comes to us with all authority behind it and puts the obligation upon all men to obey it.

Our Lord not only did not abrogate the Fourth Commandment; but by His own observance of it, by relieving it of the burdensome ritual with which Pharisaic casuistry had encumbered it, by making clearer the positive side of its proper observance, and by declaring anew, and in explicit terms, its universality, He gave it all the sanction of a re-enactment.

In that great declaration of Jesus—"The Sabbath was made for man, and not man for the Sabbath,"—the following great truths are comprehended:

1. That the Sabbath was not instituted for the Jew only, but for all the nations.

2. That all men need the Sabbath for physical rest, for mental relaxation, for domestic felicity, and for divine worship.

3. And therefore that the provision of the Sabbatic rest is an expression of the Divine goodness.

We regret the tendency in modern times toward a too liberal interpretation of the Fourth Commandment, and an attitude of compromise with the secular spirit. This is especially observable in the matters of travel and the transmission of intelligence.

We attribute this evil drift of thought and practice in part to the rise and spread of the agnostic philosophy, and the prevalence of materialistic interpretations of the universe; and we further believe, and rejoice in, the resurging waves of thought toward more spiritual views, as the hope of the revival of Sabbath observance in our land. We believe, moreover, that the means necessary to this great revival will be found in the simple and earnest preaching of the Word of God on the subject, and the firm and consistent practice of its precepts by the Christian community.

We give praise to God that the Louisiana Purchase Exposition management closed their gates on the holy Sabbath, and that the providence of a holy God rewarded them with extraordinary financial success. We also rejoice in the fact that the bill passed by Congress, in which it appropriated funds for the Jamestown Exposition, also contains the provision that the gates shall be closed on Sunday.

We are glad to note great progress in the Sabbath reform movement in our own land and in all Christian lands.

We commend to our brethren the Rev. W. H. McMasters, of Pennsylvania, who is now laboring in our midst as the representative of the American Sabbath Union.

D. V. PRICE, Chairman.

J. A. COOK, Secretary.

We, your Committee on the Spiritual State of the Church, report:

We recognize the difficulty of making this report satisfactory, because of a lack of information, since the regular reports of preachers to our Conference do not give the necessary data upon which to base our report.

Charged, as we are, of God, who has called us and placed us over His blood-bought church to serve their spiritual welfare, we submit that this question is of supreme importance; indeed, all other questions derive their consideration and importance only as they serve this great end. The increased liberality in our benevolences and the revivals of the kingdom of God reported in the church and the conversion of sinners indicate spiritual life among us, for which we devoutly praise the great Head of the church. But even that which has been accomplished in this, is by no means what should have been done. We need a great spiritual quickening in the whole Conference, and it must come if we would accomplish the only purpose of our God in our existence as a church, mutual edification and the salvation of the lost.

About 50 per cent of our church membership habitually attend the ministry of the word. About 10 per cent attend the weekly prayer-meeting. Very few of our homes have family worship. Our people are not generally a Bible reading people, and the neglect of these means of grace have brought great spiritual poverty to us.

The demands made upon the young men of our church by the club and fraternal societies for their time and money, and often the questionable and demoralizing associations therein, is a great menace to their spiritual welfare and impairs their usefulness in the service of God.

It is a matter of great thankfulness that we are not left without a remedy from spiritual declension.

We recommend the earnest preaching to our people of the pure Word of God, not in words which man's wisdom teacheth, but which the Holy Ghost teacheth, comparing spiritual things with spiritual, that their faith should not stand in the wisdom of man but in the power of God. "If they had caused My people to hear My words, then they should have turned them from their evil way and from the evil of their doings." "Take heed unto thyself and to the doctrine continue thou in them, for in so doing thou shalt both save thyself and them that hear thee."

O, for more confidence among us in the simple, sublime, potential, inspired, inerrant Word of our eternal, inerrant God as the power ordained of God unto salvation!

We recommend the wise, kind, loving administration of discipline. We are not pleasing our Heavenly Father by retaining in His church without effort to reform, those who are guilty of those things condemned by His Word. If we would have God's blessing, we must "purge out the old leaven that we may become a new lump."

We recommend the first week in January as a week of special prayer for a great revival of the kingdom of God in the whole Conference.

E. K. McLARTY.

MEMOIRS.

REV. THOMAS HOWARD PEGRAM.

BY H. F. CHREITZBERG.

Rev. Thomas H. Pegram, son of Jacob and Ursula Pegram, was born January 11, 1829; converted and united with the Methodist Protestant Church at the age of nineteen; married Miss Elizabeth Tison Jones in 1851; after her death he married Miss Alice Peoples Thilletts, of Kernersville, in 1890; transferred to the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, in 1877, and exchanged earth for heaven March 24, 1906—aged 77 years, 2 months and 13 days.

While a member of the M. P. Conference, he served the following charges: 1853-54, Yadkin Circuit; 1855-56, Albemarle Circuit and and Tar River Mission; 1857, Randolph Circuit; 1858-59, Halifax Circuit; 1860, agent Jamestown College; 1861-62, Alamance Circuit; 1863-64-65 was President of his Conference; 1865 was delegate to the General Conference and was elected to each succeeding General Conference during his connection with the M. P. Church; 1867-68-69-70, Winston Circuit; 1871-72-73, Roanoke Circuit; 1874, Forsyth Circuit; 1875, Winston and Kernersville Circuit; 1876-77, Winston and Forsyth Circuit. At the close of 1877 he received a written testimonial of his standing in the Conference and withdrew to unite with the M. E. Church, South, as he favored the episcopal form of church government, remarking that "there was too much liberty in the M. P. Church—every man wanting to do as he pleased."

During the twenty-four years of active work in the M. P. Church, he reported over 1,600 converts, 700 accessions, erected 9 church buildings and 3 parsonages.

At the session of the North Carolina Conference held at Salisbury, 1877, Bishop Doggett presiding, his orders were recognized and he was received into the Methodist Episcopal Church, South.

Here he served the following charges: Stokes Circuit, 1878-79-80; Forsyth, 1881-82-83; Guilford, 1884-85-86-87; Kernersville, 1888-89-90-91; Davidson, 1892; Linwood, 1893-94-95; Pilot Mountain, 1896-97-98; Jamestown, 1899-1900-01; Stokesdale, 1902-03. At the Conference at High Point, 1903, he was granted the superannuated relation at his own request, which he held until his translation.

His success as an itinerant preacher continued after his transfer to our church. From imperfect reports we gather the following results of his twenty-six years of service: 1,700 conversions, 1,500 accessions, and 8 churches erected. During his ministry of 50 years, 3,300 converts, 2,200 accessions, 17 churches erected and 3 parsonages.

The closing years of his life were spent in preaching wherever the opportunity offered, assisting his brethren in protracted meetings and other services, while he occupied his own home in Winston. His last sermon was delivered at Mooresville a few weeks before he died.

Brother Pegram was a good man, a wise administrator, a sound, earnest, and at times truly eloquent preacher, a faithful friend, ready always for every good word and work, liberal with his means, and faithful in all the walks of life.

REV. R. T. N. STEPHENSON.

BY J. C. ROWE.

Rev. Robert Theodore Nelson Stephenson was born February 17, 1835, in Alexander County; died at Polkton, North Carolina, 5th day May, 1906.

He was twice married, first to Miss Louise W. Ivey, of Lancaster, South Carolina. His second marriage was to Mrs. M. F. Burroughs, in 1866, daughter of C. C. Cundiff, of Surry County. Five children were born to them; of these, Mrs. C. B. Covington and Mrs. H. C. Bricker, with the mother, survive him.

Brother Stephenson was converted in his youth and joined the church at Rocky Springs, Alexander County, and was licensed to preach by the Quarterly Conference of the Alexander Circuit. He joined the North Carolina Conference at Beaufort in 1859. I have no record of the charges he served during the first six years of his itinerant life. But beginning with the year 1866 to the close of his effective ministry he served the following charges: 1866-7, Surry Circuit; 1868, Blue Ridge Mission; 1869-70, Onslow Circuit; 1871-72, Jonesville Circuit; 1873-75, Yadkinville Circuit; 1876-77, Salisbury Circuit; 1878-81, Pleasant Grove Circuit; 1882-85, Randolph Circuit; 1886-88, Pittsboro Circuit; 1889-92, Morven Circuit; 1893-94, Matthews Circuit; 1895-98, Farmington Circuit; 1899-1900, Stokes Circuit; 1901-02, Stony Point Circuit; 1903, Polkton Circuit.

At the Conference of 1903 he was placed on the Conference roll of honor as a superannuate and remained in this relation two and a half years, when the Lord called him to his reward. His health and strength had been failing for several years, in a measure unconsciously so to him. But when advised to ask for the superannuate relation he very readily did so.

Rev. R. T. N. Stephenson was a familiar name and the man an attractive one among us. Honor, truth, purity and charity were incarnated in him. He honored all people and claimed honor for himself. But he claimed it on the ground of merit. He was a gentleman. He never learned how to depreciate either himself or any one else. Opportunity was his standard of duty and ability.

He had somewhat of a jocular nature, but never an impure or profane word came from his lips. He was sensitive, but readily excused any real or apparent slight. His confidence in, and love for, the brethren of the Conference was deep, fervent and constant.

He had many well-marked qualities as a Christian and minister of Christ. He was conversant with the Scriptures and never indulged in doubtful interpretations. His preaching was often sublime. His commanding personal appearance secured the attention of his audience, and he held it to the close of his sermon. He needed only to be aroused, then Scripture, doctrine, history, each in its proper place, was flung forth with the earnestness of an apostle.

He was a man of peace and a peace-maker among the people. He had neither tongue nor ear for gossip. If he found disturbance in a charge when he went to it, his peace-loving spirit soon quieted it—however fierce the storm might be it soon became a calm. Men were ashamed to exhibit petty jealousies in his presence. This excellency was well marked in his character. He was a builder, and many churches and parsonages stand in the track of his life as monuments to his wisdom and zeal.

His tact in moving people to do church work and making them feel that they were doing it, not by constraint, but of their own accord, was superior.

Brother Stephenson had the good fortune to be born in a home of faith and religion. The father and mother believed in God, and the ethics of the Christian religion were the law of the home. He inherited a strong faith and never swerved from it nor faltered in it. He had a definite belief of the doctrines of Christianity because they are taught in God's Word, and their consistency appealed to his reason and experience and were confirmed.

Intellect and talent got the response of highest admiration. His whole nature bowed reverently before holy and sacred things. The Methodist Church never had a truer or more loyal son. In his faith he dealt with God. He believed that divine providence gave him his appointment, and for forty-seven years he was always to be found where, as he conceived, the great Head of the Church had placed him. He had aspirations that were disappointed, but he never complained.

A few years ago the perceptible fading of intellect and the waning of bodily strength showed that his life on earth was drawing gently toward its close. The end came. There was no parting word, intended as such, none was needed. He walked out into the yard at his home in Polkton, N. C., May the 5th, 1906. The Saviour called him, he went immediately. The body was left to be buried to wait for the Saviour's call in the resurrection. But his spirit has gone to enjoy the presence of Christ in company with the faithful saints in heaven. May we all meet him there.

REV. JOSEPH CARSON THOMAS.

BY G. H. DETWILER.

Rev. Joseph Carson Thomas was born June 26, 1828. He was a native of North Carolina and spent his entire life within the borders of the State. He enjoyed the blessings of a Christian home in his childhood and in due time yielded himself to the saving grace of God and consecrated himself to his service. We have no knowledge of the particular circumstances connected with his call to the ministry, but judging from his long and successful career in the Methodist itinerancy it is safe to conclude that he was led to take such a step only after serious meditation and under the compulsion of a profound conviction of duty. He joined the North Carolina Conference at Wilmington in 1855. Following this decisive event there stretches an unbroken service in the itinerancy extending through more than thirty-five years. The history of this service if recorded would reveal the familiar but ever interesting events and experiences of a faithful Methodist preacher's life. It can only be said here that his various fields of labor extended from the mountains to the sea and that wherever he labored his influence lingers as a sweet and wholesome savor in the memory of the people he served. In the year 1891, on account of failing health he was granted a superannuated relation and retired from the active ministry. During the remaining years of his life he retained a lively interest in all the work and progress of the church he loved so well and manifested a sweet and loving spirit toward all his brethren.

While his early educational advantages were meagre Brother Thomas was in no sense an uneducated man. He acquired through self-discipline the habit of study, and from every source within his reach gathered to himself useful information. His books were well selected, exhaustively studied, and covered a wide range of knowledge. He was a preacher of more than ordinary ability, and his sermons were delivered with the demonstration of the Spirit and with power. To all the churches which he served he could have written the words of Paul, "Our gospel came to you not in word only but in power, and in the Holy Ghost and in much assurance."

He was not a great revivalist though his ministry was often blessed with gracious seasons of revival power. But he was especially gifted in the art of winning men for his Master by personal effort in his pastoral work. He won many stars for his crown and greatly enriched his ministry by personally leading men to Christ in the sick room, by the fireside, and on the public highway.

His religious experience was clear and steadfast; his character pure and strong; his influence wholesome and kindly; and his reputation throughout his long ministry unblemished.

He suffered much during the closing years of his life, but he bore his afflictions with heroic fortitude and quiet submission.

It was the privilege of the writer of these lines to be with him often during his last days and from those hours of loving fellowship he brings to you the assurance that to this faithful servant of our Lord there came the abundant fulfillment of that precious promise, "In the evening-time it shall be light." His end came suddenly and peacefully in the midst of loving friends June 19, 1906. His body was carried to its last resting place in Green Hill Cemetery, Greensboro, by his brethren in the ministry, where it awaits the resurrection call that shall at last bring all of us who are faithful to the complete and final inheritance of the saints in light.

REV. BENJAMIN FRANKLIN CARPENTER.

BY JOHN F. KIRK.

Rev. Benjamin Franklin Carpenter was born in Cleveland County, N. C., Sept. 7, 1869, and died at Winston-Salem, N. C., June 10, 1906. He was converted when a child and joined the Methodist church at St. Paul's, Belwood circuit. He was but thirteen years old when his father died, and, young as he was, he at once took up the practice of holding daily family devotions. This exhibits a trait of character that was manifest all through his life. Whatever duty or responsibility fell upon him, he assumed promptly and cheerfully and did his best to meet the responsibility. He was called to some hard and difficult tasks, but if he considered it hard, he was never heard to complain.

He had his high school training at Waco High School, Belwood Institute and Rutherford College, and graduated with the A.B. degree from Trinity College in 1898.

On November 28, 1900, he was married to Miss Jennie Pendergraft, of Durham, N. C. She, with three children, are left to mourn their loss.

Was licensed to preach in 1892, and joined our Conference at Winston in November, 1898.

He served the following charges:

Mt. Airy Circuit.....	1899-1900.
Salisbury Circuit	1901.
Woodleaf Circuit	1902-1903.
Epworth	1904-1905.

Southside and Salem this year to his death, June 10, 1906.

He was never self-assertive but was always at work in a quiet, modest way. The writer was with him in the last revival he ever held. He availed himself, during these last days, of every opportunity to speak to men personally as to their salvation. During the last week of his active life he spoke to scores of persons, and it was just this kind of work that he felt especially called to do.

He has finished his work, has rendered his account and has entered into rest.

REV. LATTA H. TRIPLETT.

BY J. W. JONES.

Rev. Latta Hedrick Triplett was born November 27, 1875, and died April 5, 1906, near Davidson College. Was converted in his boyhood, and joined our church in Mooresville. Was licensed to preach in 1894, and in November of that year was admitted on trial into this Conference at Statesville. Was ordained deacon at Salisbury in 1896, by Bishop Galloway.

He served the following charges: Chestnut Hill; Salisbury, as junior preacher, in 1895; Iredell Circuit, as junior, in 1896; student in Trinity College, 1897-'8; Bakersville Circuit, 1899-1900; Marshall, 1901.

During 1901 his health failed, and at the following Conference he was granted the supernumerary relation, and was at the session of 1902 superannuated and remained in that relation to his death.

As a preacher he was clear and incisive in thought, direct and clear-cut in statement; and with earnestness and pathos carried his hearers with him.

A year ago his health was somewhat improved and he was anxious to return to the regular work, but some of his friends, fearing he was too feeble, dissuaded him, little thinking then that disease had such a hold on him as to terminate fatally so soon. But he has gone the way toward which we are traveling.

"Sleep on, dear brother, free from earth's wasting consumption, fevered nerves, sleepless nights and disappointing hopes. Rest sweetly until the last loud trumpet's joyful sound shall wake thee to the glorious morning and Eternal Day."

MEMOIRS OF WIVES OF PREACHERS WHO HAVE DIED DURING THE YEAR.

1. Mrs. Lucy A. Cuninggim. Born September 28, 1838, in Mocksville, N. C. Professed faith in Christ and joined the Methodist church when 12 years old. Graduated from Greensboro Female College in 1858. Married to Rev. J. A. Cuninggim January 2, 1862. Was a true helpmeet; sharing in all the sacrifice and joy which comes to the faithful itinerant. Was a leader in all good work. As a member of the church, a teacher in the Sabbath school, a worker in the missionary society, everywhere she abounded in the work of the Lord. She was a faithful Christian—an ideal woman—who has gone to her reward.

2. Mrs. Martha Sherwood Triplett. Born April 4, 1835. Was graduated from Edgeworth Female Seminary in 1858. Married to Rev. T. L. Triplett December 1, 1859. After her marriage she joined the Methodist church. She remained a faithful, zealous, consecrated worker until called from labor to reward on November 15, 1906.

3. Mrs. Emily Martin Boone. Born July 14, 1837. She gave her life fully to Christ and was faithful always in her devotion to the church. Was married April 17, 1875, to Rev. T. A. Boone, and she did all that love and consecration could do to help her husband in his work. She died at Mocksville, N. C., December 23, 1905; and when the end came she was ready to answer the call of the Master and to enter upon her reward.

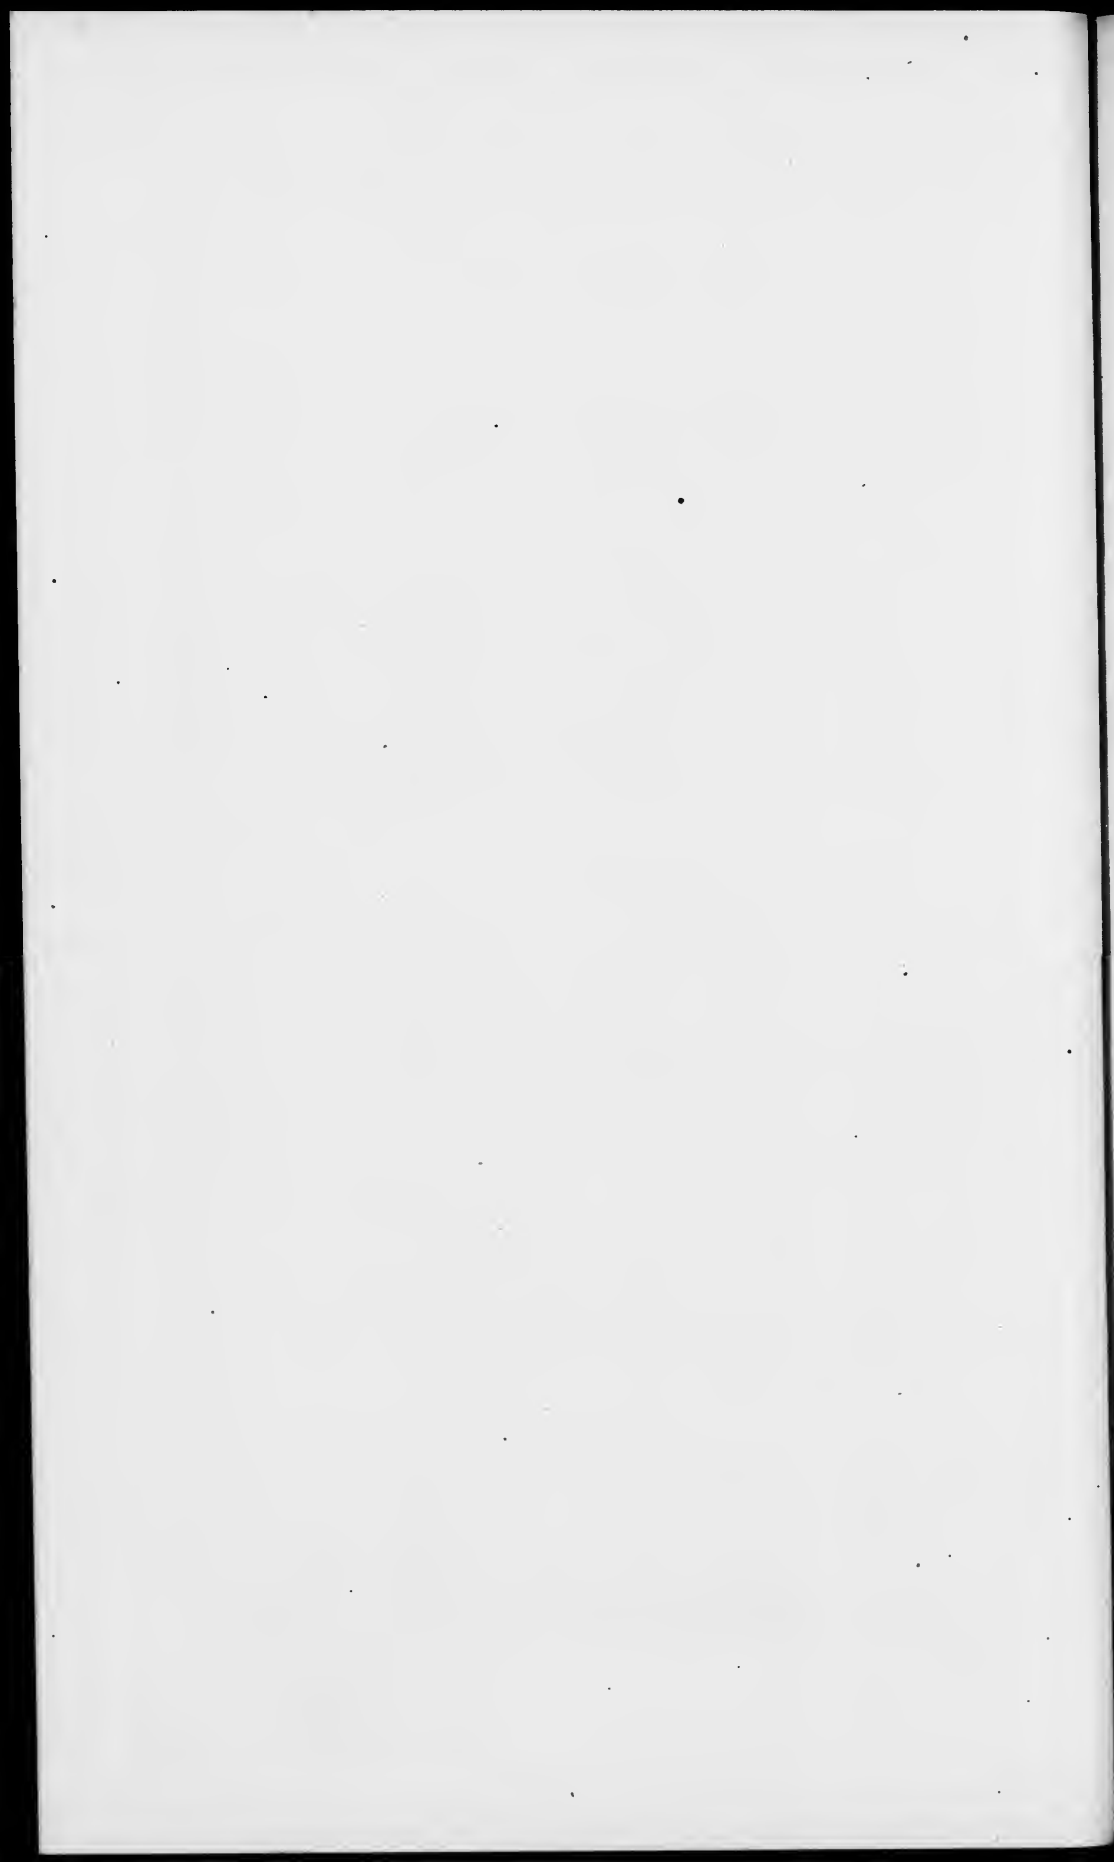

4. Mrs. Louisa L. Fincher, wife of Rev. B. F. Fincher, died January 21, 1906, in her 52d year. She was retiring in her nature, but possessed of an unusually strong character and a deep spiritual experience. She was a keeper of the parsonage home, and well did she perform her service as a faithful wife, mother, friend. When the call came she went without fear to Him in whom she believed.
